F. Archivist’s Report Camille McCutcheon

In early March, Camille and Gordon went to Valdosta State (VSU) to work in the archives. They brought information to be included into the archives [ALA Resolution for centennial, conference program from GLA/SELA, copies of SELn (printed copies of each issue and put in the archives), information from event at Signal Mountain] – 2 copier boxes worth of physical additions to the archives. The Southern books competition books were previously held at the University of Kentucky. Camille worked with UK for the books to be sent and added to the library at VSU. The books are awaiting cataloging. Camille and Gordon worked on the commemorative issue for the centennial celebration for The Southeastern Librarian (SELn). They finished inventorying SELn issues and discovered SELA history that is not written down anywhere else. Camille has entered all of the items into Excel. Camille is still trying to track down some photographs and getting info on honorary members. It was passed by the Board in the late 80’s that those winning the Rothrock award are automatically granted honorary members of SELA. Camille thanked the archivist at VSU for all their help during the recent visit.

Adjourn

Melissa Dennis adjourned the meeting at 12:47.

Melissa Dennis adjourned the meeting at 12:47.
I am looking forward to serving SELA with all of you this year! We have such a fantastic leadership team! With a new biennium we have new Executive Board members: Kristin Rogers as Secretary and Vicki Gregory as Treasurer. Beverly James has been helping us tremendously in transitioning Treasurer-related tasks, including switching out names with banking services. I’m happy to announce that SELA no longer uses Bank of America, but rather all of our banking services now go through Regions Bank. We discovered there are many more Regions Bank options in all of our SELA states, so this has helped us make this decision. So far, Vicki and I have signed off on 3 check requests for Administrative Services and one check request to renew our domain name SELAonline.org for the next 5 years (We save $60 this way, thanks Gordon!). The Executive Team also met in January to approve the year’s budget. Shout out to Michael Hooper for all of his help updating the website to reflect our new changes, including no longer listing emails for officers directly on the website.

With so much of our lives still affected by COVID-19, we will be planning a virtual conference with North Carolina October 18-22, 2021. In addition, we will plan a SELA Summer Virtual Conference and I’m delighted that Crystal Gates and Gordon Baker have volunteered to co-chair this committee, so please volunteer if you want to help plan this fun event. After consulting with Louisiana’s Library Association President Sonnet Ireland, I was assured we should have a LA state representative by April. I reached out to the members of the Circulation and Reserves Roundtable to elect a new chair as our previous chair, Natalie Logue, seems to have switched careers and we have been unable to reach her this year. As we continue to plug in important members to our Leadership Team through adding co-chairs or chair-elects, I hope you will continue to reach out to Gordon and me with any questions or concerns with membership for your sections, committees, or round tables.

The TLA Advisory Council and Executive Board met virtually on December 18, 2020. The TLA 2021 Conference theme is “Tell Your Story: Shifting Perspectives.” The conference will be held virtually from April 6 through 8. Full conference (April 7 & 8) registration is $95 for non-members and $50 for members. There will be two pre-conference sessions offered for an additional $20 each, regardless of membership status. The pre-conference entitled “Not the Same Old Story: Using Census Data to Identify New Opportunities” will be held from 9-11:30 a.m. on Tuesday, April 6 and is sponsored by the TLA Government Documents Roundtable. “School Readiness Toolkit Training: Rethinking Preparation for Kindergarten” will be held from noon – 4 p.m. on Tuesday, April 6 and is sponsored by the TLA Children’s and Youth Roundtable. The current schedule can be viewed at https://tnla21.sched.com/. Live sessions will be held on Zoom and Slack will be used for networking and session discussions.

Other TN Library News:

- The Executive Director of Tenn-Share has stepped down and the Tenn-Share Board is currently interviewing candidates to fill the position.
- The Tennessee State Library and Archives will open in their new location on the Bicentennial Mall in downtown Nashville on April 13, 2021.
- Membership is down. This has been attributed to the cancellation of the conference last year because many people pay their membership fees when they register for the conference.
- The Tennessee Association of School Librarians (TASL) is advocating for funding to fill the statewide school librarian position that has been vacant for years. They are hoping to have it added to the Governor’s education budget.
- The TLA Executive Board passed a motion to support a joint scholarship with TASL for BIPOC school librarian students.

Library Legislative Day was held virtually on March 9, 2021. The day consisted of a general session, an advocacy workshop by Dorcas Hand (School Library Advocate in Houston, TX), a One Voice Toolkit presentation, and a student Q&A with legislators. Recordings can be viewed at https://vimeo.com/showcase/8160339. The One Voice Toolkit was developed by the ALA’s Ecosystem Task Force. One Voice is an initiative of the State Ecosystem Task Force of the Committee on Library Advocacy (COLA). Information on One Voice and The Toolkit can be found at http://www.ala.org/advocacy/state-ecosystem-initiative.

The next TLA Advisory Council and Executive Board meetings are scheduled for April 6, 2021 and will be held virtually during the annual conference.

COMMITTEE SUBMITTED REPORTS

Continuing Education and Staff Development Committee

Muriel Nero and Laura Slavin Co-Chairs

We emailed out a call for presenters to the committee. No response yet, but we will be sending out a call via the SELA listserv this week.

Sharon Holderman from the Education Section reached out to Muriel about a possible collaboration in the future.

Muriel and I will be working on updating the Frankenthaler Scholarship application rules in the upcoming months, with the help of the committee.

SELA Planning Committee

March 15, 2021

Committee Formed: Contacted all potential Planning Committee members listed in Excel file sent to me by Gordon Baker, SELA Administrative Services, to invite them to serve if interested. I received 14 favorable responses and set up an e-mail distribution list.

Committee members for 2021-2022 biennium (note: more will be added if new/renewing other SELA members indicate an interest in serving):

Anderson, Beth
Belton, Marsha
Bickford, Becky
Carscaddon, Laura
Dodge, Tim (Chair, ex officio)
Gates, Crystal (ex officio)
Glover, Sarah Grace
Johnson-Felder, Doris
Johnston, Meredith
McRee, Bill
Platt, Jessica E.
Stephens, Wendy
Thornton, Danielle
Turner, Wil'Lani
Wray, Caleb.

First Meeting: March 3 via Zoom. Following introductions, I outlined our charge as listed in the SELA Bylaws. We identified some preliminary ideas for possible investigation including:

1) Planning for future pandemic such as COVID-19 or other disruptive disaster.
2) Diversity, equity, and inclusion.
3) Open Access/freely available resources.
4) Growth of technological/data-related services and resources such as data management, Makerspaces, and programs such as R. Python, or LateX.
5) Grants and scholarships.
6) Association membership growth.

In addition, following the committee’s charge as described in the SELA Bylaws, individual committee members have volunteered to locate (if available) state library association strategic plans from all 12 Southeastern library associations.

I am collecting all such documents being sent my way and intend to have the Planning Committee consult these to help us identify possible models to use and also to help generate additional ideas for possible investigation (see above).

Ultimately, the goal is to produce one or more recommendations for the SELA Executive Committee and Board for their consideration. No exact timeline but perhaps by end of 2021.

Meetings/Communications: Intend to host virtual meetings via Zoom every one to two months with e-mail communications in between as needed.

SELA Education Section Update (March 15, 2021 Board Meeting)

2021 Plans:

1. Work with PR & Marketing Committee to develop a promotional video for library science students. The video will promote the student membership benefits and encourage students to join. Then the finished video will be sent to library schools in the SELA states to include as they see fit (website, orientation, course management system, etc.)
2. Explore webinar collaboration opportunities with the Continuing Education Committee.
3. Create a resume review program for library science students to launch in early 2022 for spring graduates.

Technical Services and Resources Section Report

March 15, 2021

TS&R Section met on March 9 to discuss programming ideas for both the upcoming conference. We are in the process of putting together a small working group to submit a moderated panel that discusses the intersections of public and academic libraries in regard to technical services.

Additionally, members had the chance to introduce themselves and ask questions and discuss items of interest while a number of technical services librarians were in the same “zoom room.”

University & College Section report

Laura Slavin is the new chair-elect for the committee.

Posted a call for C&U sponsored presentation proposals for the SELA/NCLA fall conference. After Laura and I reviewed them, two were selected for sponsorship, with the warning that this does not guarantee the presentation’s acceptance to the conference. One proposal deals with job searching during COVID – and any other time; and the other is on effective strategies for managing student workers.

Library Instruction Round Table (SELIRT)

March 15, 2021

A Virtual Coffee Hour was held on Thursday, December 17, 2020 via SELA’s Zoom room. The format was open discussion of instruction issues. Topics discussed included reaching students online during COVID-19 (i.e. student engagement, instructional tools). Over 10 people attended the session. Feedback was positive, and several attendees expressed the value of being able to speak with other instruction librarians.

Discussion is underway for future programming, including additional Coffee Hours and possible conference events.

Respectively Submitted,

New Members Round Table Report, 3/15/2021

NMRT leadership met March 5 to discuss programming ideas for both the upcoming conference and additional ideas. The plan is to host a brown bag discussion primarily for current library school students on March 26, covering job hunting skills. Title is “It’s a jungle out there: hunting for the library job.”

Planning for the conference program is also underway. Currently, the plan is to request a live panel covering self-care tips for librarians.
