

The Southeastern Librarian

Call for Reviewers

The SELn Editorial Board solicits SELA members to serve as volunteer reviewers.

Article and book reviewer volunteers should complete The Southeastern Librarian reviewer volunteer form (requires authentication through Google). Volunteers will be asked to upload a CV within the form. Volunteers may also email the SELn Editor to express interest in becoming a reviewer, please include a CV in the email.

Article Reviewers

The SELn seeks representatives who are qualified to evaluate the content of articles so that the articles are "peer reviewed" by those with subject knowledge as well as by those with a knowledge in research methodology. As such, the SELn is seeking individuals from all types of libraries representing a broad range of responsibilities.

Article reviewers will be asked to review articles inside and outside their area of subject expertise.

General criteria for article reviewers:

- Must be a member of SELA
- Minimum of 2 years professional experience
- Minimum of 2 published peer-reviewed publications or equivalent experience

Have questions? Contact Ashley S. Dees, SELn Editor, 1 Library Loop, University, MS 38677. Phone: (662) 915-7933. Email: aesorey@olemiss.edu.

Book Reviewers

The SELn reviews books with a connection to the Southern USA, either by content or the author's association with the south, and books related to libraries and librarianship.

General criteria for book reviewers:

- Must be a current member of SELA
- Minimum of 2 years professional experience

Have questions? Contact Melissa Lockaby, SELn Book Review Editor, 82 College Circle, Dahlonega, GA 30597. Phone: (706) 864-1517. Email: melissa.lockaby@ung.edu.